

Southwestern Unitarian Universalist Conference
Advisor of the Year Nomination

Do you know an adult advisor of youth who is truly awesome? Someone who has made a HUGE contribution to the youth group at your church and possibly to youth ministry at the district level? Someone who totally deserves the undying admiration of youth and adults throughout the Southwest District? You can nominate that person to be the

Southwest District Advisor of the Year

How do you make a nomination, you ask?

It is very simple.

Just provide a brief nomination write up that addresses the following points:

1. Please provide an example of a memorable moment which demonstrates this advisor's unique or outstanding contributions.
2. Please explain how this advisor facilitates the development of a strong youth program at your local congregation and, if applicable, for the Southwest District.
3. Please share a memory of how this advisor actively promoted youth empowerment in an innovative manner.
4. Please describe how this advisor facilitates the smooth development & deepening of youth community within and with their congregation.

Also, please submit 2 letters of recommendation, one from a youth this advisor has worked with and one from an adult. At least one must be from the advisor's home congregation.

Please submit the nomination by March 15 to:

SWUUC
c/o Jennifer Nichols
6720 Brentwood Stair Road
Fort Worth TX 76112-3310

The awardee will be announced and presented a plaque at the SWUUC spring conference the last weekend in April